

PricewaterhouseCoopers announced that Chris Janis has joined the firm's Philadelphia office as a managing director in the risk assurance practice. He is a resident of Haddon Township. Eric Bloesch has been promoted to managing director in the same practice.

Helene Burns has been named vice president of clinical services for Kennedy University Hospital in Stratford. The Berlin Township resident has more than 30 years of experience in the health care industry.

GPSEG has named longtime member Robert M. Madonna the winner of its second annual Chris Pavlides Networking for Life Award at its Fall Networking Reception last week in Voorhees. He is executive vice president of sales and marketing for McCoy Enterprises of Deptford.

Frank J. Monaghan has been promoted to senior vice president of 1st Colonial National Bank. The Deptford resident has worked for the bank since 2005.

John H. "Jack" Fisher III, whose 40-year career in the public and private sectors includes leadership positions with major state and county government agencies, has joined Archer & Greiner P.C. as Government Affairs Specialist. The Mantua resident serves as chairman of the New Jersey Building Authority and the New Jersey Local Unit Alignment, Reorganization and Consolidation Commission.

John P. Kahn, an attorney with Archer & Greiner P.C., has been elected to serve on the board of directors of the Garden State Bar Association. Kahn also serves as a regional director of the association, representing Camden, Gloucester and Salem counties.

Pamela DePompo, of Haddonfield, executive director of Healing the Children New Jersey, was appointed to the Non-profit Executives Leadership Fellows Program at Rutgers Business School. This two-year program, funded by The Prudential Foundation, will help non-profit leaders increase their knowledge and skills.

Our Lady of Lourdes Medical Center in Camden has been named one of the nation's top performers on key quality measures by The Joint Commission, the leading accreditor of health care organizations in the nation. Lourdes was recognized for the hospital's results for following evidence-based clinical processes for heart attack, heart failure, pneumonia and surgical care.

Walter A. Eife, of Haddon Township, has joined McLaughlin Asset Management Inc, a Haddonfield-based wealth management firm, as director of retirement plans.

Nick DeRose has been appointed to the board of trustees of the The Drenk Foundation. The foundation raises awareness and support for The Drenk Center of Hainesport, which offers a full range of behavioral health services to more than 7,000 children and adults annually.

AmeriQuest Transportation Services in Cherry Hill, with revenues last year exceeding $400 million, took 23rd place on a list of the "Top 100" largest privately-held companies in New Jersey. The list was issued by NJBIZ, a statewide business newspaper.

Raymond G. Hallock has announced his retirement as President and CEO of Columbia Bank. He will remain a member of Columbia's board of directors and will be replaced by Thomas J. Kemly, Columbia's senior executive vice president and chief operating officer.

John P. Kahn

Nick DeRose

John H. Fisher

Walt Eife

